

Reporting Ontario Works Fraud

The Eligibility Review Program of the Social Services Department is committed to preventing and detecting Ontario Works social assistance (welfare) fraud. The program is one mechanism to ensure integrity and accountability to Haldimand and Norfolk taxpayers.

The Eligibility Review Programs takes all allegations seriously and conducts thorough and timely investigations. The information you provide will be kept in strict confidence. If you wish, you may remain anonymous. Please give as many details as possible.

To report a person suspected of fraud living within the counties of Haldimand and Norfolk you can:

Contact Haldimand-Norfolk Social Services local office by:

- Phone: 1-519-426-6170 ext. 3600 or 1-800-420-5403
- Fax: 1-519-426-9974
- Online with the form found below
- Mail: Haldimand-Norfolk Social Services
PO Box 570 12 Gilbertson Dr.,
Simcoe, ON
N3Y 4N5

Contact the Ministry of Community and Social Services by:

- Phone: 1-800-394-7867
- E-mail: welfare.fraud@css.gov.on.ca
- Mail: Ministry of Community and Social Services
Welfare Fraud Hotline
C.P.B 30
Toronto ON
M7A 1E9

Thank you for the information.

Created June 2018

Haldimand-Norfolk Social Services Online Form to Report Ontario Works Fraud

Note: You do not have to complete all of the fields. You must complete all fields marked with an asterisk (*).
Please give as much detail as possible.

This form is not fillable on a mobile device or tablet.

*Name of person(s) you are reporting:
Age/date of birth:
Name of spouse:
Name of child(ren):
Address:
Phone:

Details of report: (please be as detailed as possible)

The information you provide will be held in strict confidence. However, we may need to contact you if we need to clarify any information provided. Please indicate if we can contact you.

Yes, you may contact me

No, do not contact me

Your Name:
Address:
Phone:
Email:	